

PEDESTRIANIZATION OF RABINDRA SHARANI

EXISTING CONDITIONS

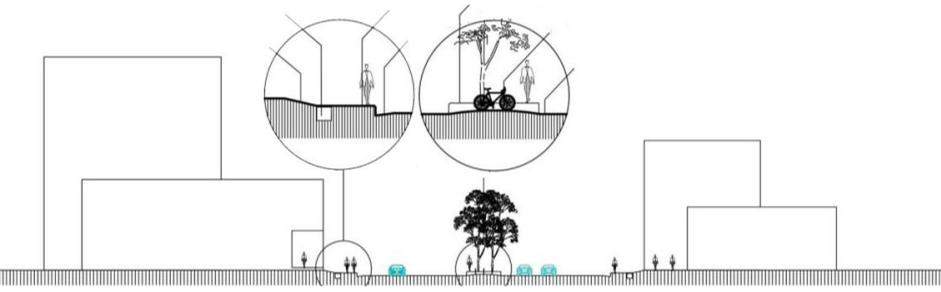

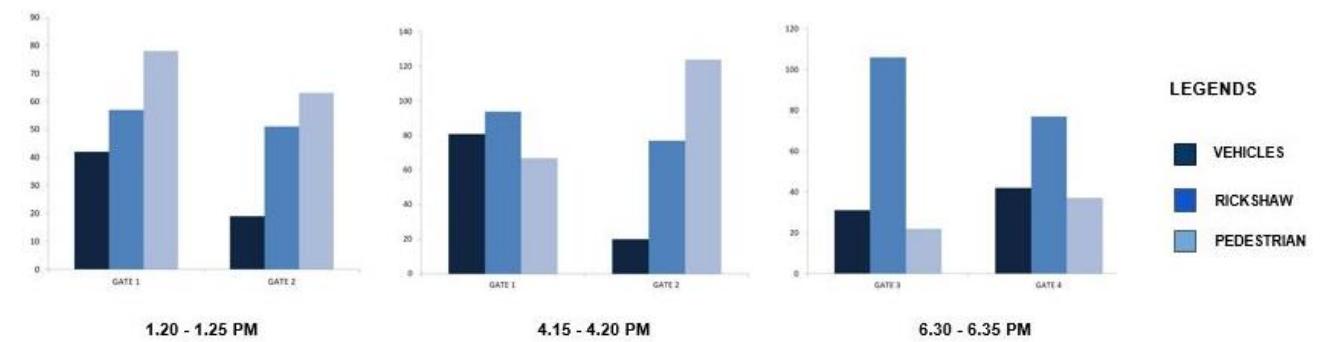

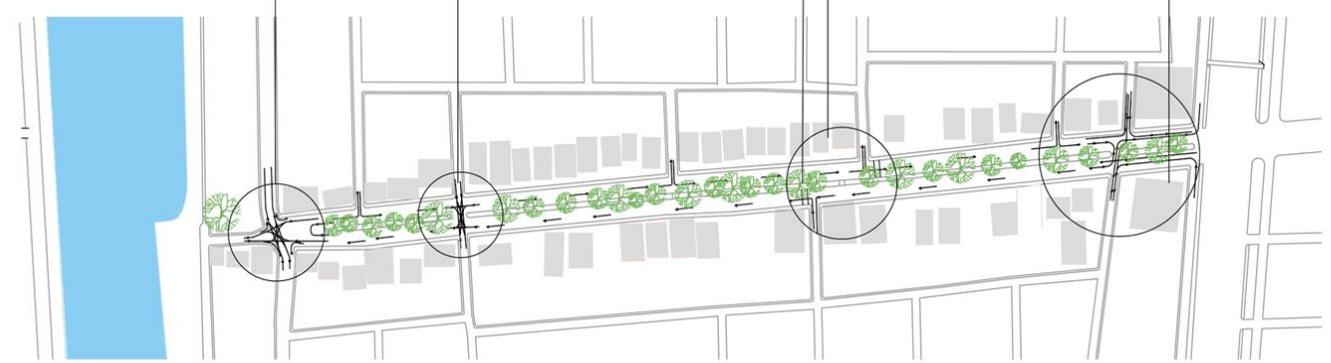

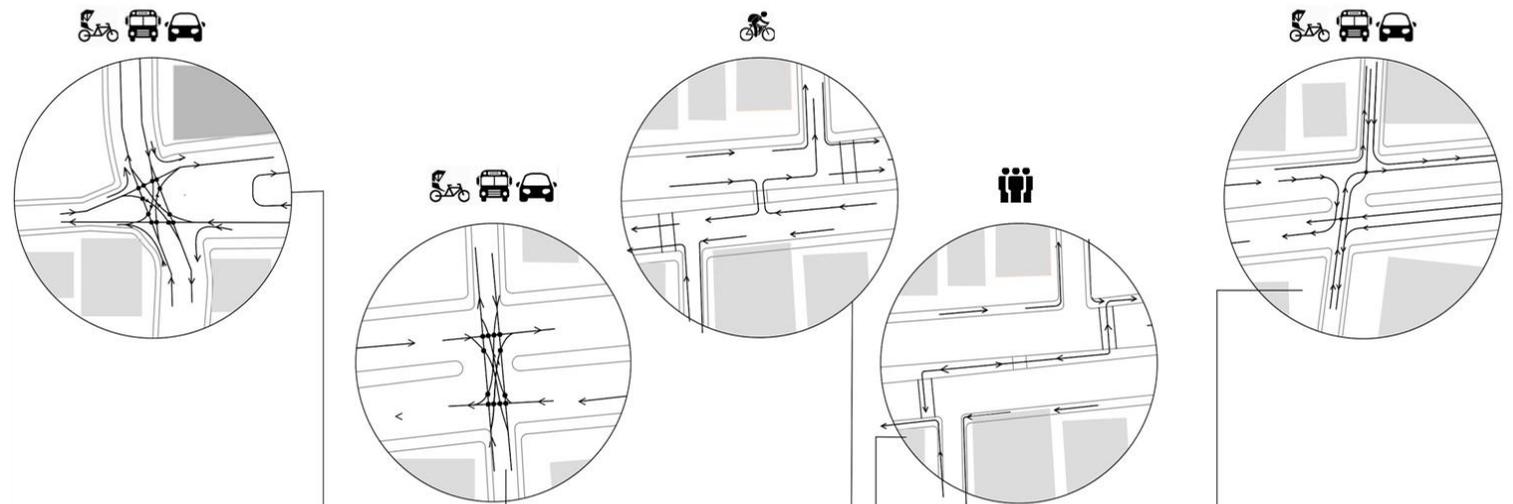

STREET : Rabindra Sharani
 LOCATION : Sector 7 , Uttara , Dhaka, Bangladesh
 EFFECTIVE LENGTH : 680 m
 EFFECTIVE WIDTH : 33 m

Existing Street

BASIC LAND USE MAP

EXISTING STREET SECTION

EXISTING PROBLEMS

- Heavy Traffic Congestion at nodal point
- Tempo Stand at nodal point
- Parking at the entrance of the road
- Boundary wall of the lake creates visual barrier
- No recreational activity
- No waste bin, water facility, seating and public toilet
- Lack of security
- The street becomes dead after 7 pm
- Lack of sale of vendors.

LEGENDS
 ■ VEHICLES
 ■ RICKSHAW
 ■ PEDESTRIAN

PEDESTRIANIZATION OF RABINDRA SHARANI

GOALS

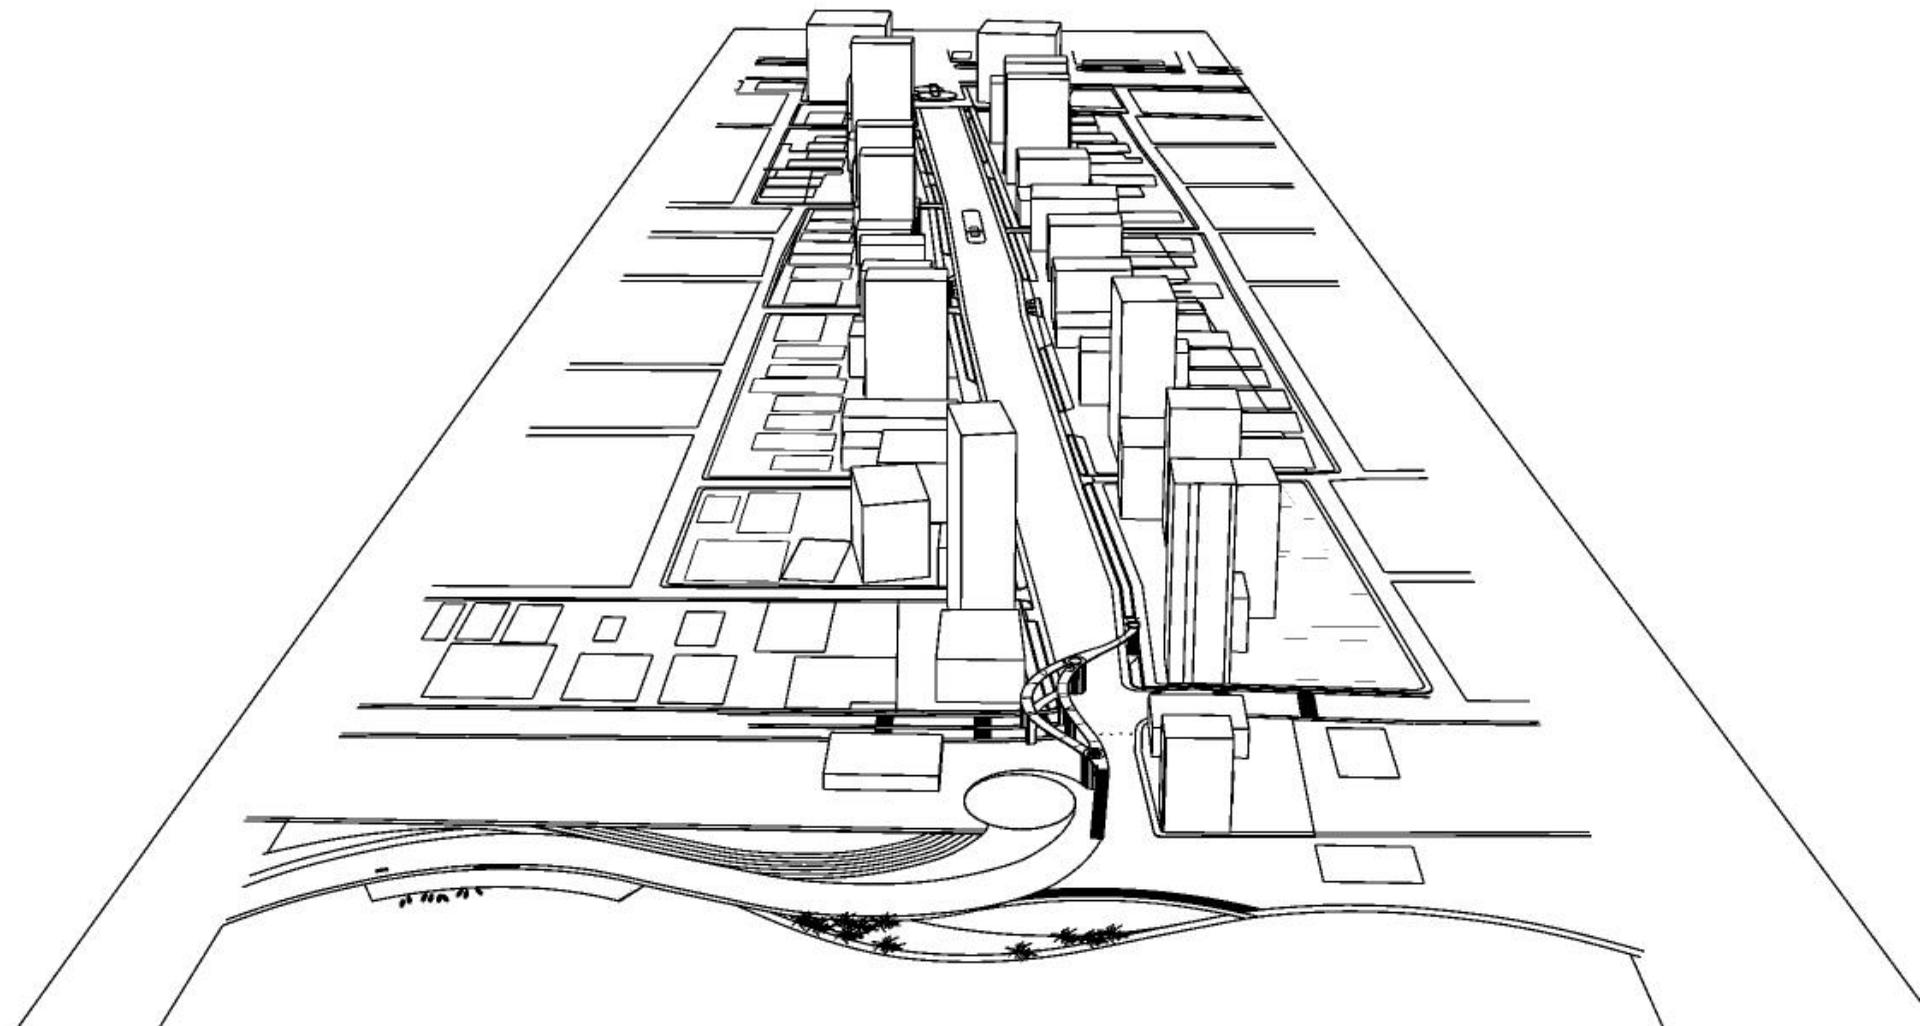

- Encouraging walking
- Discouraging use of private cars
- Reviving the dead lake
- Creating a dialogue for the city
- Increasing land value
- Increasing the sales
- Promotion of business
- Creating a breathing space for the city dwellers.

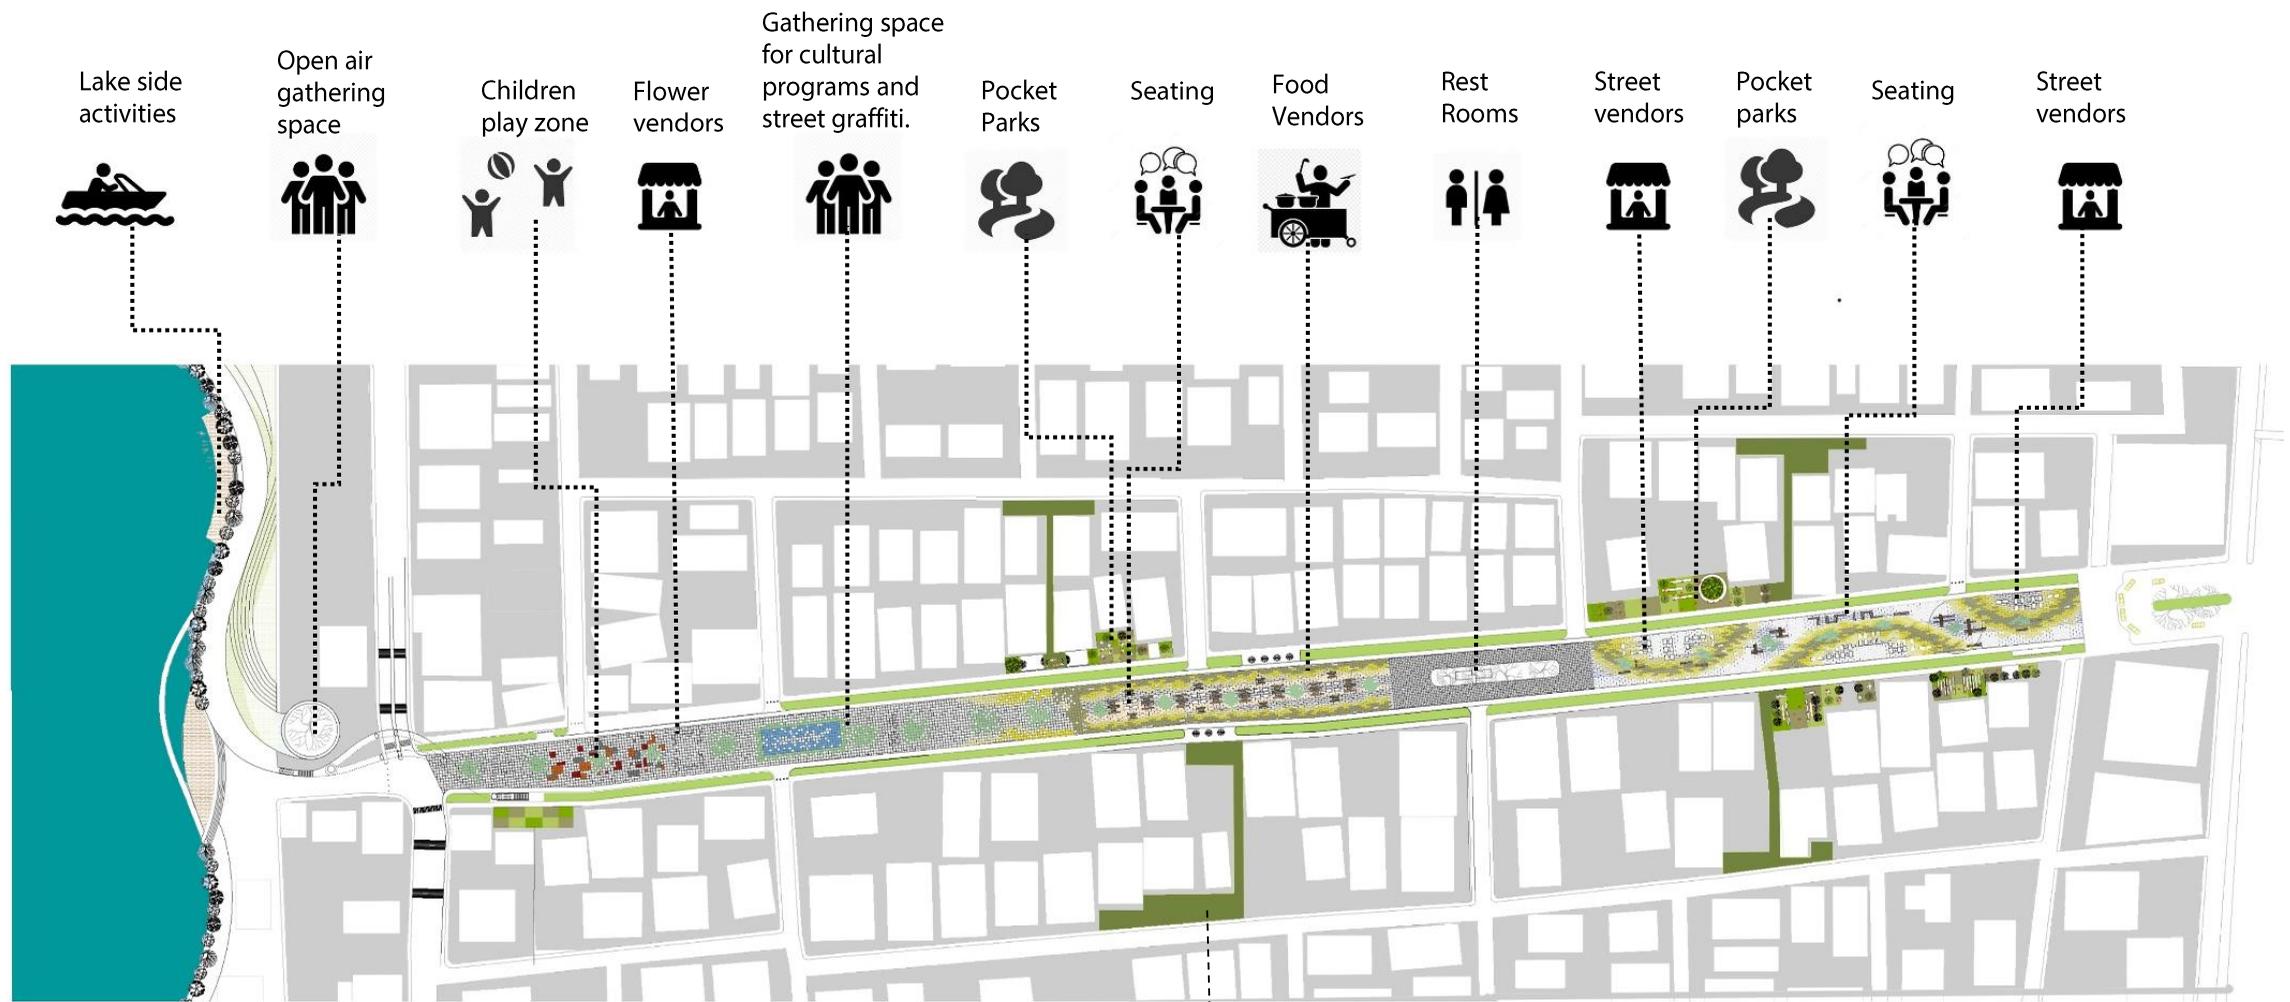

TARGETED PEOPLE

- Residents of nearby streets
- Students
- Existing vendors
- Entrepreneurs
- Tourists

POLICIES

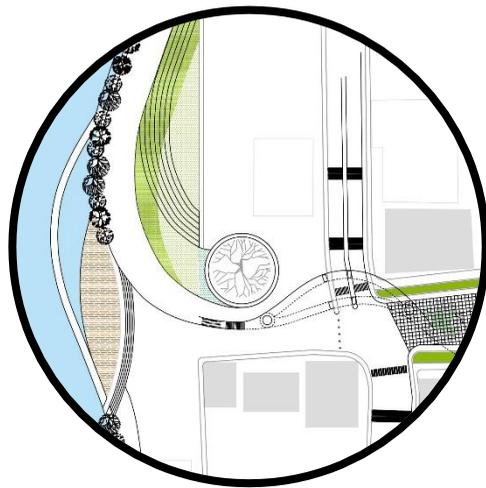

- Declared shopping street
- All residential to be commercial within 10 years.
- Pedestrianized street
- Controlled vehicular access during emergency

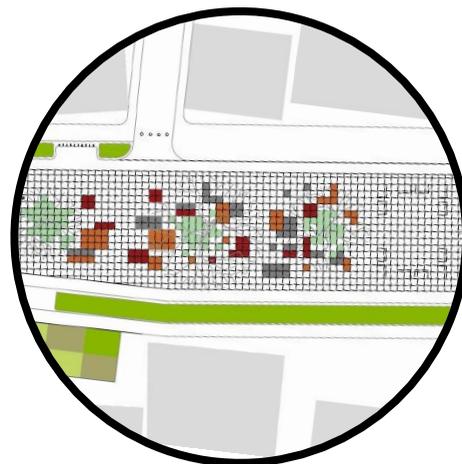

PROPOSED PLAN OF THE STREET

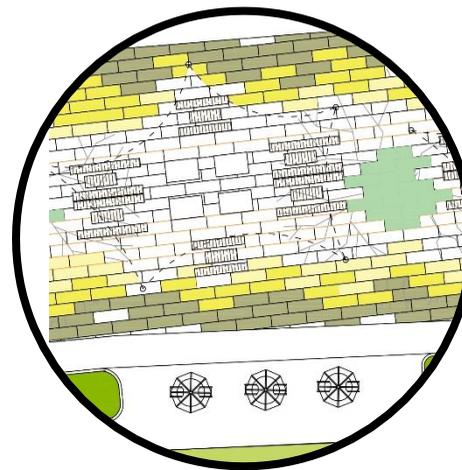

Green pathways connecting the residential neighbor hoods.

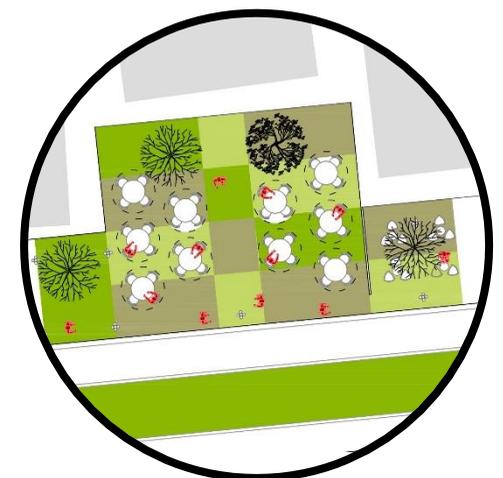

Open air gathering space and the foot over bridge that connects the street to the lake side.

Kids seating and play area.

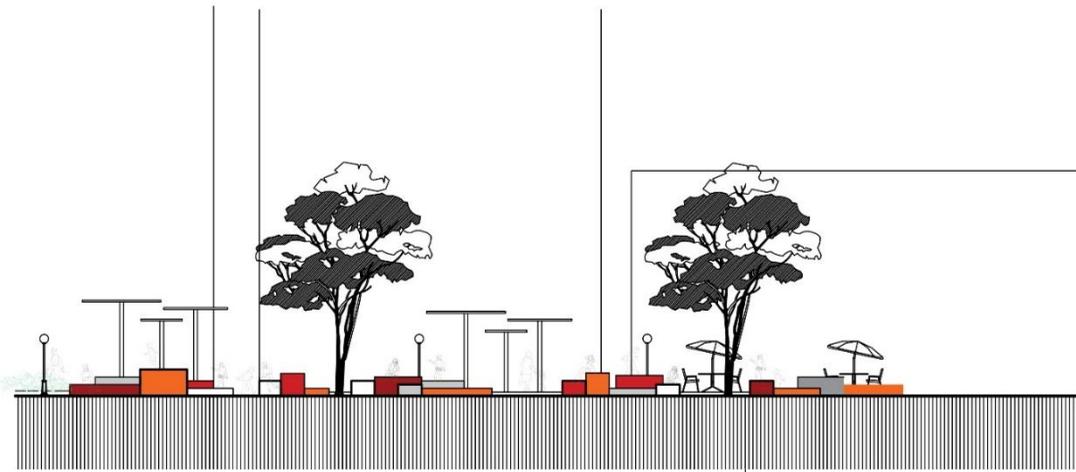

Street food vendors.

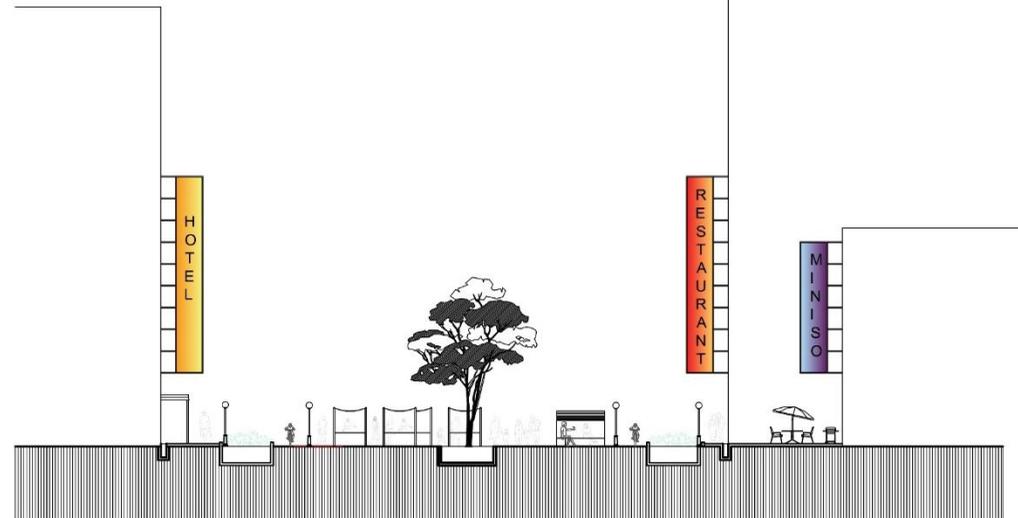

Pocket parks

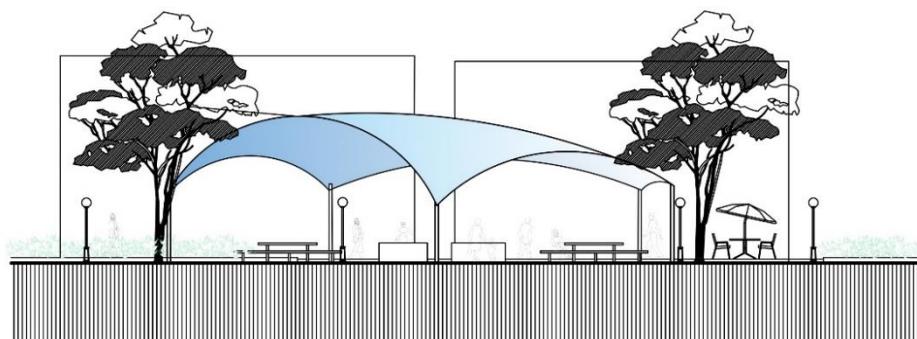

STREET SECTIONS AND CONCEPTUAL SKETCHES

Section of the road showing children play area

Section of the road showing street vendors

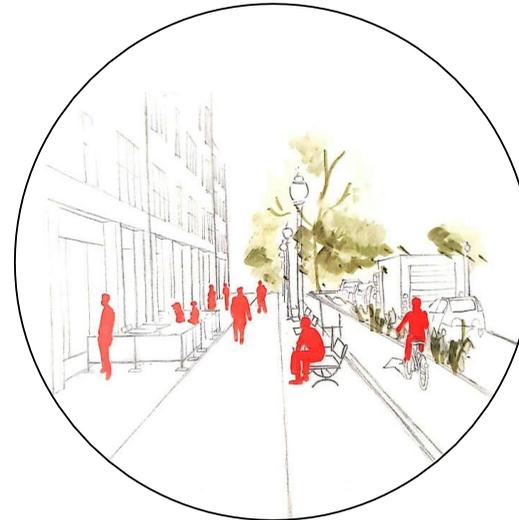

Section of the road showing sitting spaces of street food zone

View of rest rooms

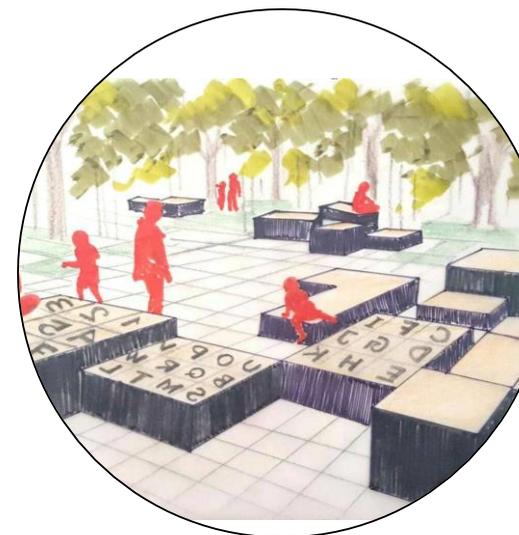

Dry fountain in children's play area

View through the footpath and the bicycle lane

Led screening on building facade for Advertisements

View of the children's play area

Lake side

