

DESIGN PROCESS

The voids of the collection are located in the middle section next to the same fluid patterns, which provide natural light and natural ventilation on all floors. It is a place for people to meet and visual communication between different floors.