

EXPERIENCING THE MUSEUM

The Meditation Space

After having visited the museum, visitors gain access to a meditation space where caustic reflections of the upper pool create a dynamic environment and a feeling of being underwater. Visitors can spend some time to contemplate their new knowledge about the Royal Docks. The brightness of the meditation space is followed by a long and dark ramp leading upstairs.

