

PERSPECTIVE DETAIL

DESIGN STUDIO AREA

A area with mezzanine level to improve the connection of the space with designer and creatives, from one space we can see other area and different level. In addition, included different field can work in this space like product design or graphic design.

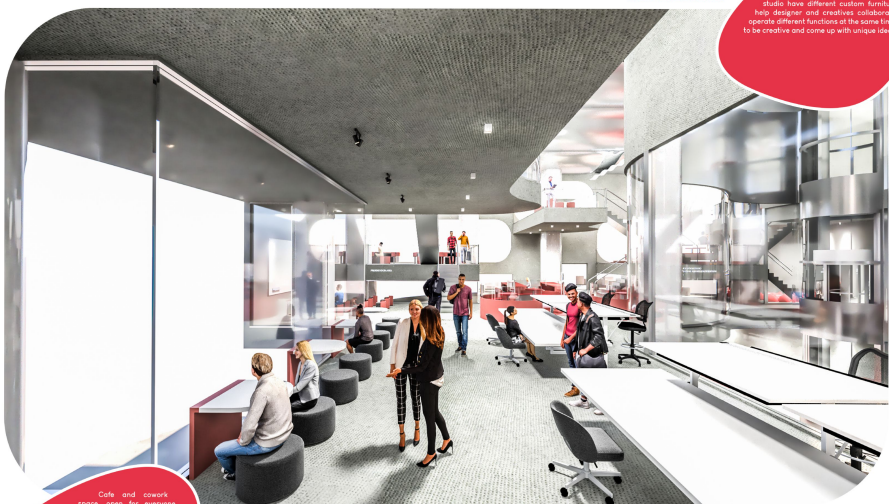

A space with a board mounted on wall to help designers and creatives can share their project, next to this space include co-work space for architecture and interior design field. In addition, two mezzanine level are different studio space for different field.

PRESENTATION AREA

STUDIO COWORKING AREA

From architecture and interior design studio, we can see overall the studio space, from outside to inside. In addition, in all studio have different custom furniture help designer and creatives collaborate, operate different functions at the same time, to be creative and come up with unique ideas.

Cafe and cowork space, open for everyone can enjoy their real time after work but some time it can change to a space where everyone also can collaborate and share ideas. The seating area inspired by cloud shape, make it into an organic art with different function, also with light red color to boost designer and creatives creation.

CAFE AND COWORKING AREA

