

VOCATIONAL CENTRE

*A place where skills are woven,
Where life finds its meaning,
More than mere walls and beams
It's where destinies are shaped.*

*Beyond the structure, it's how we become,
Crafts learned, manners refined,
A cradle for growth, a forge for dreams,
A sanctuary for the eager mind.*

*They say it takes a village to raise a child
The Vocational Centre is that village.
A community bound by purpose,
Shaping futures, nurturing souls.*

THE CRAFT

Net weaving, basket making, carpentry, soil and waste recycling etc. These are the crafts that define the people of Oworonshoki.

They are not just artisans; they are creators of life, Dancing to the rhythm of resilience, thriving through sport and entertainment. Even as they draw sand from the water, They craft a legacy, transforming the ordinary into the extraordinary.

THE PEOPLE

They are resilient, with a strong sense of community and a unique way of life.

Content with little, they make the most of what they have.

Though often misunderstood by the outside world, They possess remarkable skills and talents— Gifts that can flourish with the support of a vocational center.

THE ENVIRONMENT

Though it appears dirty and in disarray, there is a hidden pattern in the organization of its structures. Buildings crafted from diverse materials—wood, cement blocks, tarpaulin, and waste—Stand as a testament to resourcefulness. Situated along the seashore, the community rests on water burdened with trash. Yet, with the guidance of professionals, This seeming chaos can be transformed into a marvel to behold.
