

student pavillion

Design concept

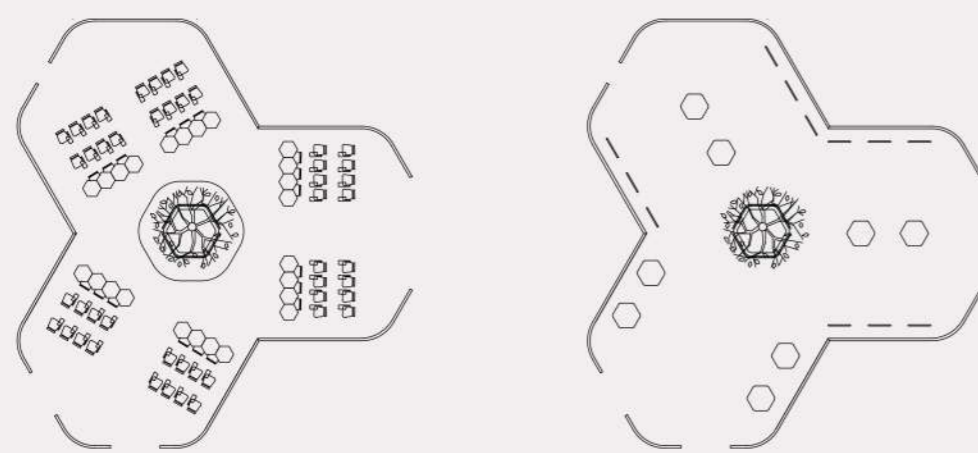

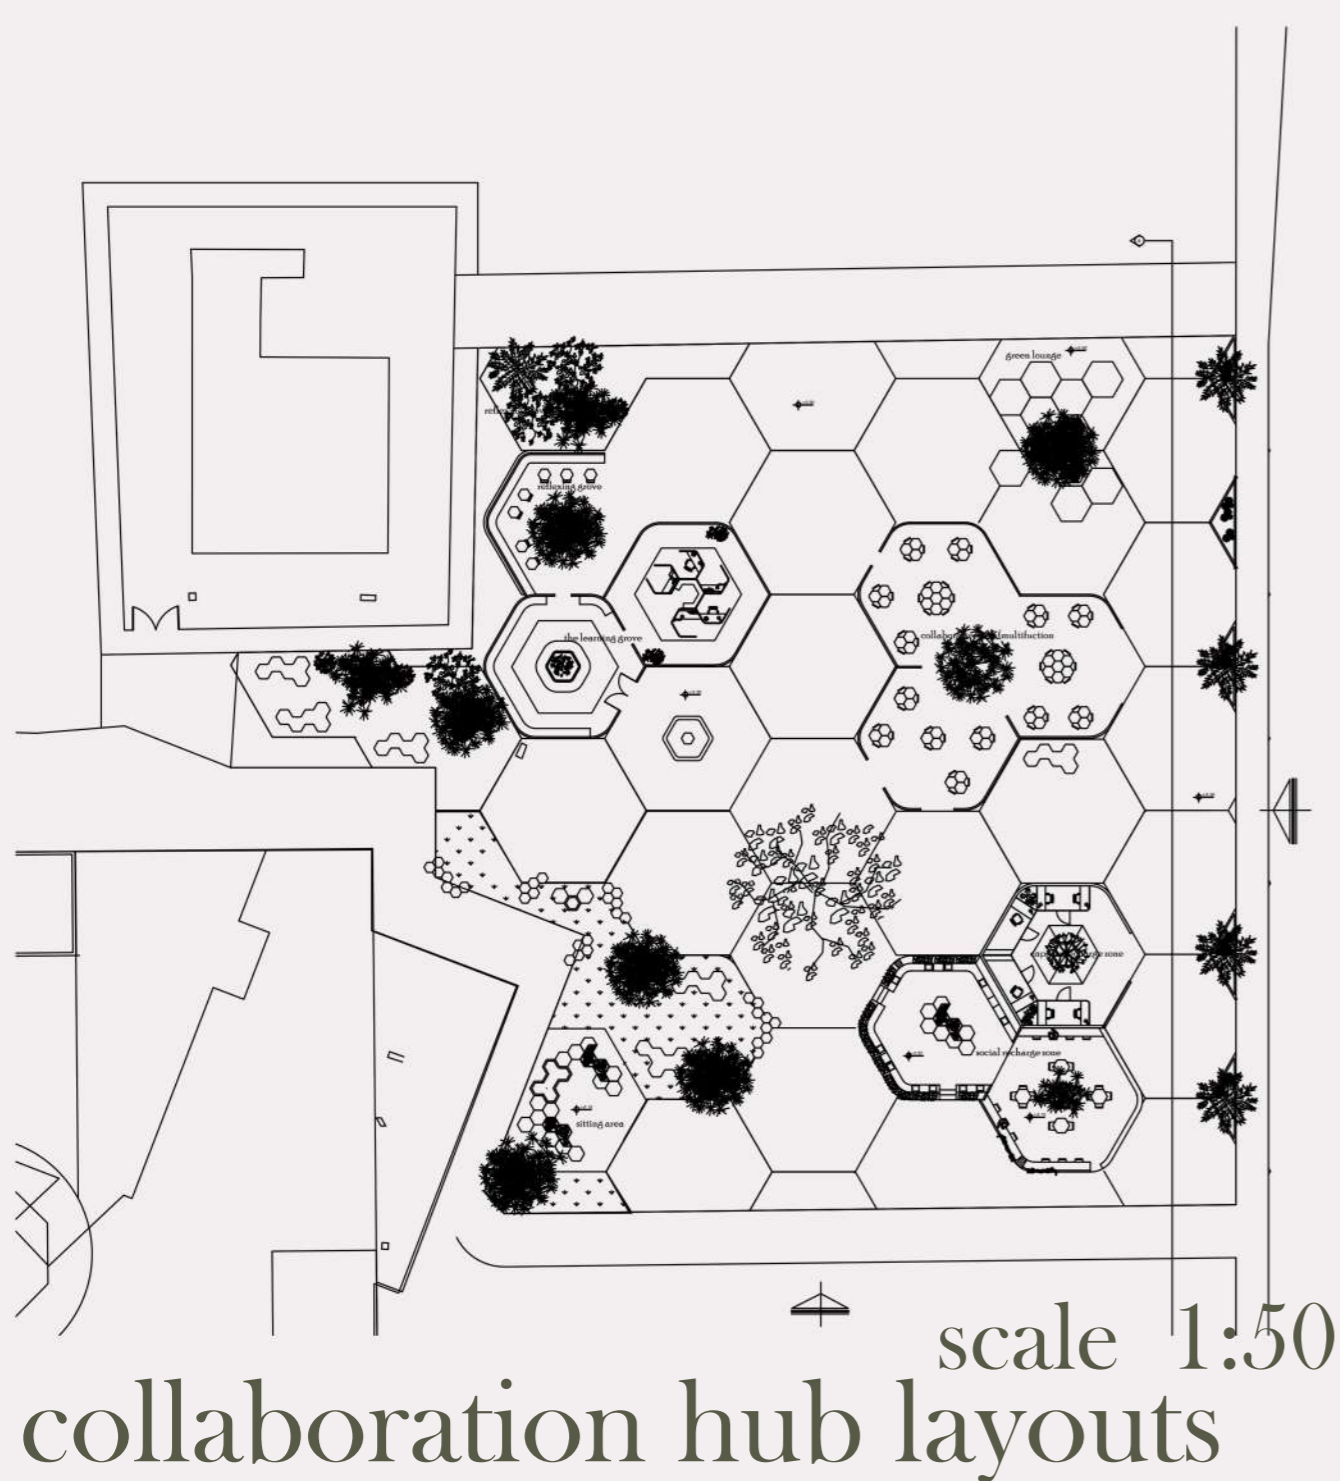

The concept is inspired by the internal structure of leaf stomata, which regulate air exchange and support natural sustainability. This idea is translated into a modular hexagonal system that reflects adaptability, flexibility, and continuous growth within the pavilion design.”

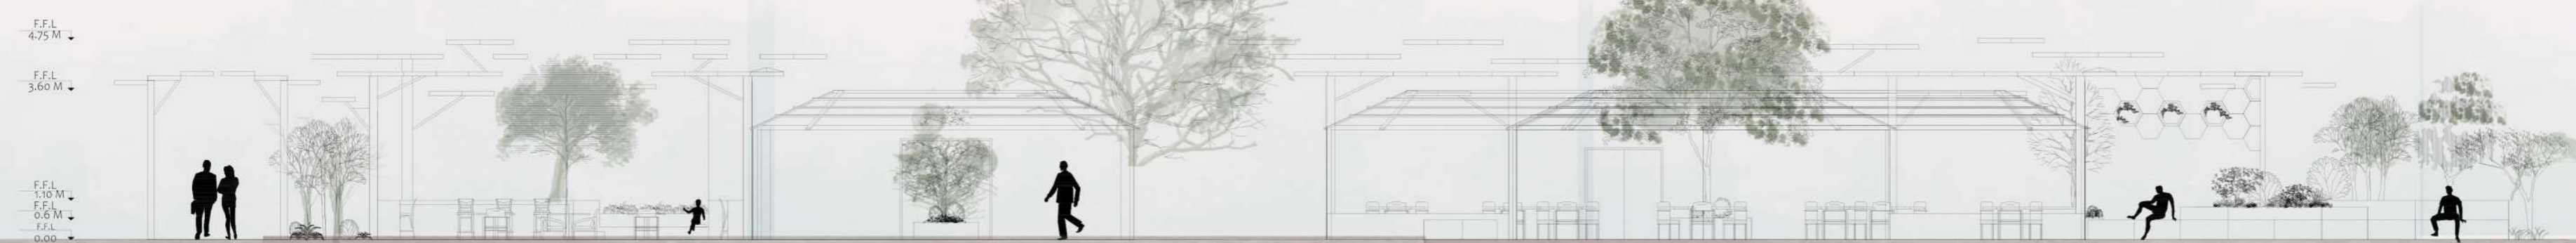

bubble & zoning

Plan

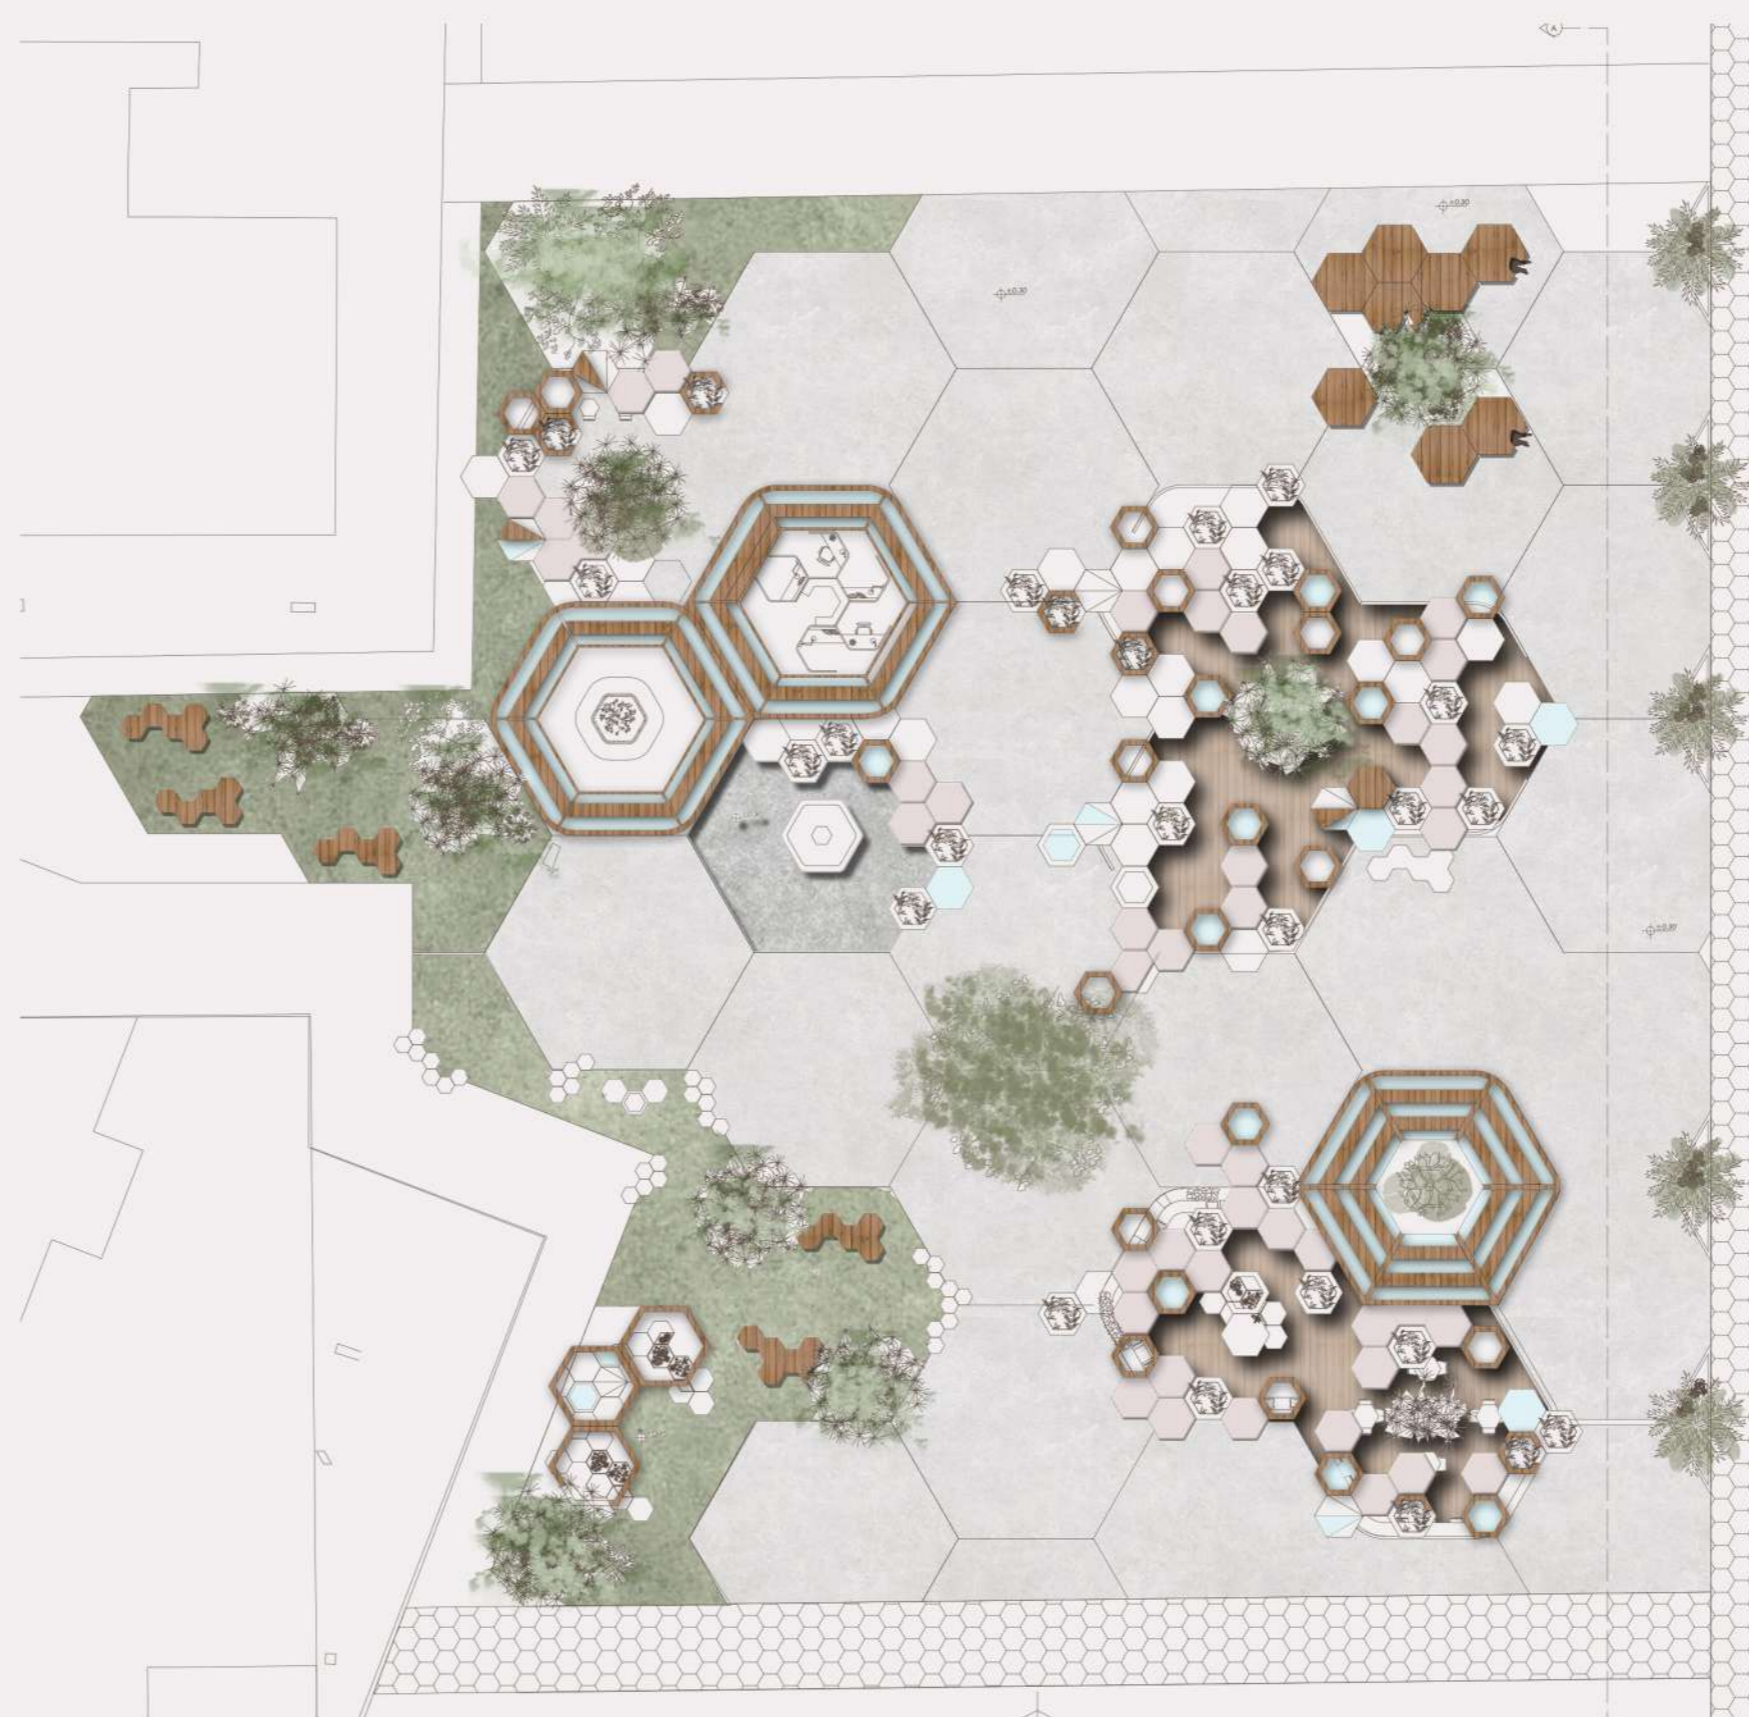

Elevation 1:25

Moodboard

Top

scale 1:50

Case studies

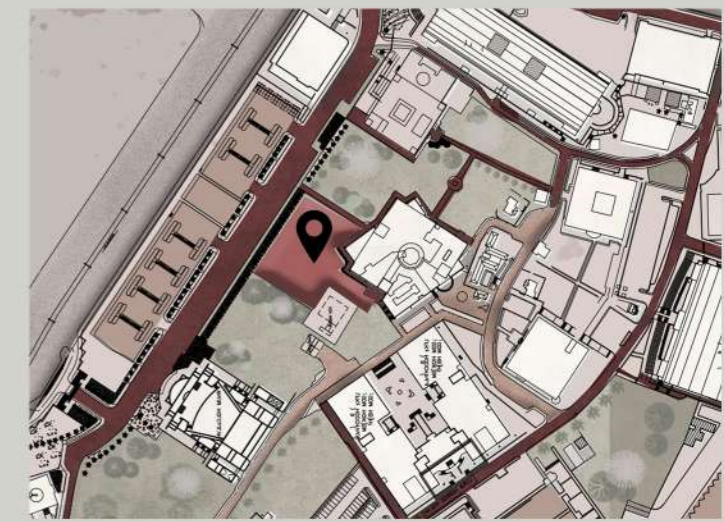

the HIL pavillion switzerland Student Pavilion Australia

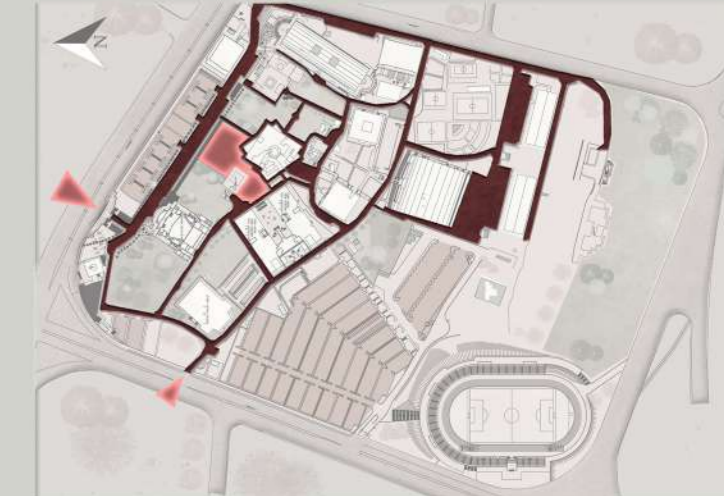

Site analysis

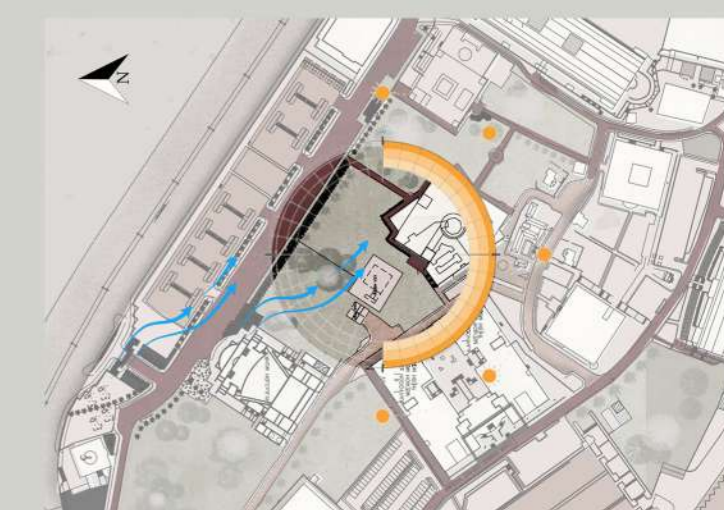

location

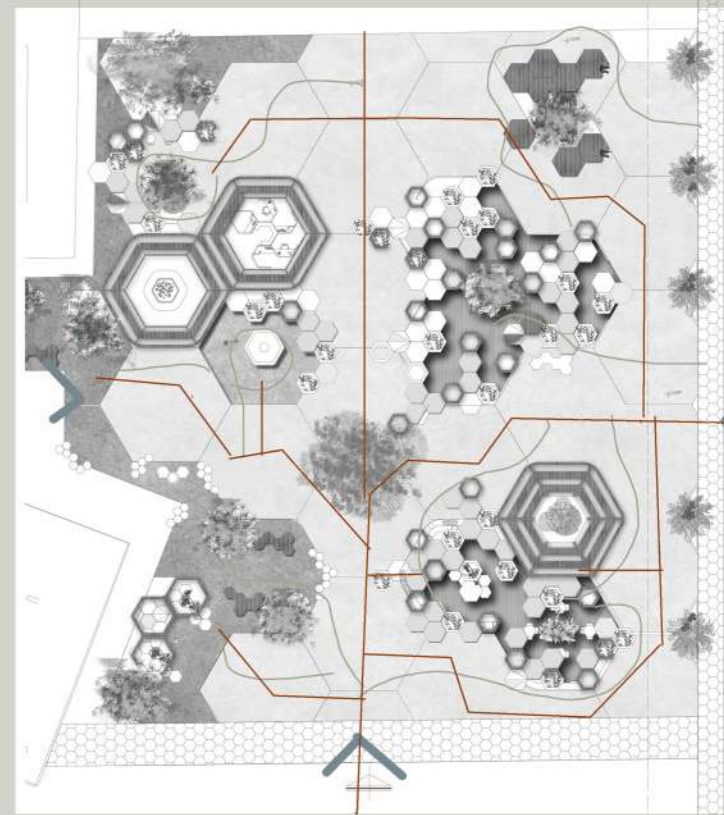

access points

sun & wind

user circulation

user analysis

Activity Type:

Behavior Type:

