
ATHAR is a sensory project rooted in the land of Siwa, where architecture is not an object to be seen, but an experience to be felt and remembered.
The project is built on the belief that we remain in memory through the traces they leave on our senses.
Through engaging the five human senses allows visitors to connect with their surroundings on a deeper level, creating lasting memories of that stays with them beyond the physical visit.

SITE LOCATION

ACHIEVING SDGs

TARGET USERS

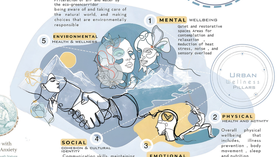
SPACE PROGRAMME

MOOD BOARD

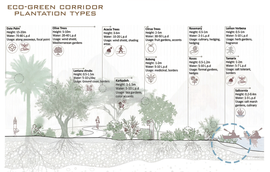
RECONTECTING WITH NATURE

NATURAL SALINE WATER TREATMENT USING HALOPHYTE PLANTS

URBAN WELLNESS PILLARS



ECO-GREEN CORRIDOR PLANTATION TYPES



THERABUTIC ECO-GREEN CORRIDOR CONCEPT